

Regional Roadway Network

The 2045 RTP network is primarily concerned with roadways that will be built or expanded using federal funding sources. The current roadway system covers eight counties encompassing six major employment centers and four deep-water ports. The system includes more than 10,000 miles of roadways consisting of five major travel corridors and three major loop corridors.

BW-8 Inset

